Deferred Action for Parents Accountability (DAPA):

Certain parents of sons or daughters who are US citizens or permanent residents (green card holders) will be able to apply for "deferred action"

- * Entered the US before January 1, 2010
- * Were present in the US on November 20, 2014
- * Do not fall within ICE enforcement priorities

DAPA would be valid for three years
DAPA recipients could get work permits and could apply to travel outside the US
DAPA will cost $465 (same as DACA)

The application period will start by late May (within 180 days of the President's announcement)

Expanded DACA: DACA is being expanded to cover hundreds of thousands more youths who arrived in the US before turning 16

- * Youths must have entered the US before Jan 1, 2010 (current cutoff is June 15, 2007)
- * DACA will last for three years, instead of two
- * There will be no upper age limit (currently have to be born before June 15, 1981)

These changes will take effect by late February (90 days after the President's announcement)

The fee will remain $465 with the same application

5 Easy Steps to Get Started!
